Pursuit of an 'Unparalleled Opportunity'
The American YMCA and Prisoner of War Diplomacy among the Central Power Nations during World War I, 1914-1923.
by Kenneth Steuer

Table of Contents

Introduction
Chapter 1"Evangelizing the World" Chapter 2The American YMCA Mobilizes Chapter 3The U.S. and POW Responsibilities Chapter 4American YMCA POW Diplomacy Chapter 5Association Diplomacy Extends Chapter 6American Secretaries in Germany Chapter 7Expanding WPA Work in Germany Chapter 8"Keeping Body and Soul Together" Chapter 9Operations in Austria-Hungary Chapter 10Phildius Relief Work in Bulgaria Chapter 11Political Prisoners, Labor Detachments Chapter 12The United States Enters the War Chapter 13The Arrival of Neutral Secretaries Chapter 14POWs in Germany Chapter 15Allied Relief in the Ottoman Empire Chapter 16Armistice and Restoration of Service Chapter 17Post-War WPA Operations Chapter 18Countering the Bolshevik Threat Chapter 19Conclusion
Glossary Maps

Appendix A

Prison Camps

Media Index >> Appendix A: Prison Camps >> Turkey >> Gallipoli

Turkish Prision Camps

Gallipoli

See also:
Chap. C15, p12A
GALLIPOLI: This prison camp was located on the Gallipoli peninsula in the Vilayet of Adrianople in Thrace in European Turkey. Gallipoli was located on the west bank of the Dardanelles Strait, which connected the Mediterranean Sea to the Sea of Marmara. The Turks treated British prisoners of war in military hospitals in Gallipoli during the Allied attempt to open the strait to gain access to Russian Black Sea ports in 1915. Despite the intense fighting, the Turks took relatively few Allied POW's during this campaign.